Engineering College in the Government of an Engineering
 College at Aurangabad 1960

GOVERNMENT OF MAHARASHTRA,
 Education and Social Welfare Department,
 Resolution No. GEC 1160-R,
 Sachivalaya, Mumbai, Bombay, 9th June, 1960.

161

Letter No. GEC 1160-A-2847(A), dated the 22nd March, 1960, from the Director of Technical Education, Bombay.

RESOLUTION :- At present there is no Engineering College (Government or private) in the Marathwada Region of the State. Students from this area are required to go long distances getting availing themselves of Engineering and Technical Education. There is also a growing demand from the people of the Marathwada Region to have an Engineering College in that region. University of Marathwada which has all other Faculties (of Arts, Science, Medicine, etc. (except the Faculty of Engineering Technology) has also requested the State Government to set up an Engineering College at Aurangabad which is a centrally located place in the Marathwada Region. Consequent on the decision taken by the Government of India to establish a Centrally Sponsored Engineering College at Nagpur from June, 1960, amalgamating the existing Government Engineering College, Nagpur, the State Government has decided to establish a Government Engineering College at Aurangabad, from June, 1960, by utilising the balance of the Plan provision allotted to the Government Engineering College, Nagpur. This is undertaken in order to provide facilities of the Degree Engineering Education to the students of the Marathwada Region and students of other regions in the State. In addition to the shortage of technical personnel (specially the degree holders) who are required to man the various technical posts in the Government Engineering Colleges and Polytechnics, as well as other industries. The annual intake capacity of the Engineering College at Aurangabad, will be 120 students as under:-

1) Civil Engineering	60
2) Mechanical Engineering	30
3) Electrical Engineering	30
Total:-	120

From the year 1960-61 i.e. from June, 1960, the College will admit only 60 students for Degree Course in Civil Engineering. The admission to the Degree courses in Mechanical and Electrical Engineering should be made later on when the physical facilities like buildings, equipment, etc., required for starting these courses are available at Aurangabad.

The staff and expenditure as detailed in the accompanying statement 'A' should be sanctioned for the College of Engineering, Aurangabad, during the year 1960-61. The Director should be employed as and when required. The Director of Technical Education, Bombay, should be authorised to fill in the following posts immediately and complete the preliminaries regarding selection of staff and procuring of immediate requirements of furniture and equipment so that the Degree Classes could be started from the academic year 1960-61:-
